GOVERNOR'S CHINESE COOK KEEPS MAYOR CHIN CHAN AN EXILE

Because Governor Heber M. Weils has a Chinese cook, Chin Chan, former mayor of Chinatown, is being held at Seattle with his bride and is kept from coming to his home in his adopted land. # FATHER AND SON ATTACKED BY VICIOUS

Fred Wilcox, the 17-year-old son of Dr. C. F. Wilcox of this city, was dangerously kicked and bruised by a victous horse yesterday morning at his home, 375 First street. The boy was knocked down upon the floor of the stail in which the horse was tied and, before he could be rescued, was stamped and kicked into insensibility. In the effort to save his son's life, Dr. Wilcox was badly bitten on the arm by the frenzied animal and had his left shoulder dislocated and his right foot crushed. The boy is very dangerously injured, but his wounds will not necessarily prove fatal.

About 8 o'clock young Wilcox went to the Barn with a sack of grass upon his shoulder, intending to feed the horse. As he entered the stail the horse became frightened at the sackful of grass and, rising upon his hind feet, struck the boy a terrible blow upon the head with his front hoofs. The lad sank to the floor unconsclous and in an instant
